Applicants must be intending to start a course at the level of BA, BA(hons), taught postgraduate (such as MPhil, MA, MSt, LLM), and research postgraduate (such as PhD). The Trusts do not have scholarships available for post-doctoral positions.

The Trusts welcome applications for part-time postgraduate degrees. Part-time undergraduate study is not available at Cambridge.

Applicants may study any subject currently available at the University.

The CIMO Fellowships programme is open to young Doctoral level students and researchers from all countries and from all academic fields. Neither studies at Master’s level nor post-doctoral studies are supported in the programme.

The monthly allowance is £900-1200 (in 2011). The scholarship is intended to cover living expenses in Finland for a single person. No additional allowance for housing is paid. Expenses due to international travel to and from Finland are not covered by CIMO.

Applications will be assessed on:
- A motivation letter from the applicant (the hosting Finnish university), max 1 page
- Complete CV of the scholarship candidate
- Research plan (2-5 pages).

Prospective students cannot apply for a CIMO Fellowship independently. The prerequisite for applying is that the visiting researcher must have established contacts with a Finnish host university. The Finnish university department wishing to host the student applies to CIMO for the grant on behalf of the student/researcher.

The application form for the CIMO Fellowship can be downloaded at:

There are no annual application deadlines in the CIMO Fellowship programme. Applications may be considered at all times. However, please note that applications should be submitted at least 5 months before the intended scholarship period.

CIMO awards scholarships to foreign post-graduate students and young researchers to carry out post-graduate studies and research and teaching in Finnish universities. The objective of the scholarship programme is to increase mobility to Finland and to foster links between Finnish and foreign universities.

The CIMO India Fellowships are offered for Doctoral level studies, research and teaching at universities and university research institutes in Finland. The scholarships are intended for Indian applicants who have completed a Master's degree. Neither studies at Master's level nor post-doctoral studies are supported in the programme.

The amount provided by the scholarship varies from £900 to 1200 per month. Also, an additional travel grant of £500 is awarded to applicants who will be invited from India to Finland.

The scholarship period may vary from 3 to 12 months.

Applications will be assessed on:
- A motivation letter from the applicant (the hosting Finnish university), max 1 page
- Complete CV of the scholarship candidate
- Research plan (2-5 pages).

Prospective students cannot apply for a CIMO India Fellowship independently. The CIMO India Fellowships are applied for by the Finnish university departments wishing to host the visiting student or researcher. The applying department is expected to commit to common objectives with the prospective scholarship holder. The scholarship is personal.

Centre for International Mobility ("CIMO") Kindred Nations' Scholarship

CIMO grants scholarships for young post-Master’s level researchers representing the Uralic Peoples of Russia. The main objective of this programme is to promote international mobility in research and teaching in fields related to Finno-Ugric linguistics, ethnology and folklore. At the same time it strengthens the cultural and linguistic ties between the Uralic nations and Finland.

Applicants must be a Finno-Ugrian minority in Russia undertaking post-Master’s level research at a Finnish Institution.

The monthly allowance of €800 - 1200 is intended to cover living expenses in Finland for a single person. No additional allowance for housing is paid. Expenses due to international travel to and from Finland are not covered by CIMO.

The scholarship period is normally 1 to 9 months.

The pre-requisite for applying is that the visiting student or researcher must have established contact with the Finnish host university. The visiting student or researcher cannot independently apply for the grant from CIMO, instead the hosting Finnish university department should apply to CIMO for the grant on behalf of him/her.

CIMO should receive applications for 9-month scholarships starting in September by February at the latest.

Chevening Scholarship Programme

The Chevening Scholarship Programme offers outstanding graduates and young professionals the opportunity to study at UK universities.

Awards are made for one year's formal study for a postgraduate qualification or for a shorter period of not less than three months to pursue private study or research at a university or similar institution in the UK.

Successful candidates should be:
- Professional graduates who display both intellectual ability and clear leadership potential
- Have a proven track record of success or excellence in his/her professional life
- Motivated to make a career leading to a position of leadership within 10 years of their scholarships
- Committed to networking to find global solutions
- Intending to study a one-year taught Masters or undertake between three and twelve months research towards an Australian PhD in the UK.
- Citizens or permanent residents of Australia

A full scholarship will cover the cost for a UK visa, a return air ticket to the UK, all tuition fees (not exceeding £10,000 per year), and a monthly stipend and allowances.

Candidates wishing to study a course with academic fees exceeding £10,000 per year should expect to part-fund their study.

The Programme is looking for individuals who can demonstrate that they have the potential and ambition to make a substantial, positive difference in their chosen fields. Evidence of leadership experience and potential is critical.

All applications must be made on-line via E-Chevening. Candidates should complete the online application forms in full. Incomplete forms will be rejected.

Part A of the form asks about family details. Please note that scholarships fund the costs of the award holder only. If candidates wish to take any members of their family to the UK, they must bear the cost themselves.

Part F of the form asks about the candidate's choice of course and university. Candidates are strongly advised to secure a confirmed place at a UK University before interview. Those invited to interview will be asked to give strong reasons for their final choice of university and subject of study.

Part I of the form asks for reasons for the candidate's choice of course, how the candidate intends to 'make a difference' on their return to Vietnam, and their leadership potential. These sections are particularly important and will be discussed during the interviews for those who are shortlisted.

♣ Be permanently resident in a Commonwealth country other than the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands or the Isle of Man
♣ Be available to commence their academic studies in the United Kingdom by the start of the UK academic year in September/October 2011
♣ Hold, by October 2011, a first degree of upper second class Honours standard (or above); or a second class degree and a relevant postgraduate qualification, which will normally be a Master’s degree; and
♣ In the fields of medicine and dentistry, have qualified as a doctor or dentist between 1 October 2001 and 30 September 2006

Each Scholarship provides:

♣ Return airfare to the United Kingdom
♣ Approved tuition and examination fees
♣ A personal maintenance allowance at the rate of £844 per month
♣ A grant towards the expenses of preparing a thesis or dissertation, where applicable
♣ An initial arrival allowance, incorporating an initial clothing grant for Scholars from tropical countries
♣ A grant for expenses for approved travel within the United Kingdom or overseas
♣ A grant towards fieldwork costs for those Scholars undertaking doctoral studies for whom a case has been made for fieldwork outside the United Kingdom.
♣ A paid mid-term fare to their home country for Scholars on three year doctoral awards.

Applications are considered according to the following selection criteria:

♣ Academic merit of the candidate
♣ The quality of the proposal
♣ The potential of the candidate to lead in the pursuit of global excellence in research and knowledge

All applications should be made through a candidate’s local agency in their home country and candidates must check with them before submitting an application to them, for specific advice on how to make an application and for their own closing dates for applications to reach them.

The General Sir John Monash Foundation offers up to eight Scholarships per year for postgraduate study at a non-Australian university. Only Australian citizens graduating from Australian universities are eligible to apply.

The Foundation supports postgraduate study programmes in any field. The Foundation will support Doctorates or Masters Degrees, but will not support a further undergraduate degree.

The Scholarships provide funding of AUD 50,000 per year for a maximum of three years. The General Sir John Monash Scholarships may be held concurrently with other scholarships or awards, at the discretion of the Foundation. The annual Award sum of $50,000 is normally paid in two equal payments.

The General Sir John Monash Scholarships are available for postgraduates to attend universities that are considered to be amongst the global leaders in the field of study. Applicants should identify in their applications up to three universities to which they have sought or would seek acceptance.

The General Sir John Monash Scholarships offers full cost of studying at Cambridge, namely:
- the University Composition Fee and College fees at the appropriate rate
- a maintenance allowance for a single student (£12,750 for 12 months at the 2010-11 rate; pro rata for courses shorter than 12 months)
- one economy single airfare at the beginning and end of the course
- A discretionary contribution towards the costs of supporting dependants at Cambridge (upon application).

Once in residence, Gates Scholars may apply for financial help with the costs of attending conferences, undertaking fieldwork and other activities.

Successful applicants will have the ability to make a significant contribution to their discipline while in Cambridge, with a strong aptitude for research, analysis and a creative approach to defining and solving problems.

In awarding Monash Scholarships, factors considered include:
- Outstanding intellect – demonstrated by academic excellence (having completed or are about to complete a university degree or degrees with outstanding results, such as an honours degree (with a classification of 1 or 2A) or equivalent, scholarship, language skills, musical skills and/or publications;
- Leadership – demonstrated and potential – within or outside of an Applicant’s field of study or professional field;
- Citizenship – community service;
- Well-defined research project or study programme to be conducted at a non-admission as a graduate student to the University of Cambridge and a Gates Cambridge Scholarship using the one application pack.

To be considered for graduate admission and a Gates Cambridge Scholarship most applicants will need to submit all of the following documents to the Board of Graduate Studies:
- GRADSAF application form - on-line or hard copy
- Academic transcripts - hard copy
- References (2 academic and 1 personal) - hard copy
- English language test scores (if required) - hard copy
- Any other documents required for admission to the course - e.g. research proposal, example of written work etc. (see the individual department/course website for details) – hard copy

Hawker Scholarships

The Hawker Memorial Scholarship Trust Fund was established by the late Kathleen Lillias Needham to perpetuate the memory of her late brother Charles Allan Seymour Hawker - scholar, soldier, pastoralist and statesman, by means of a scholarship.

The main object today, as it was then, is to encourage others to follow her brother's example of help and service to his country and his fellow men and women.

The Hawker Scholarship is available to any Australian student undertaking a three or four year course of study approved by the Trustees. Undergraduate students who have commenced their studies are also eligible to apply for the scholarship.

Successful applicants can chose to study at one of the nominated Australian universities or colleges.

In some instances the C.A.S. Hawker Scholarship is also offered to postgraduate students who can undertake a one year course of study at the University of Cambridge in the UK.

The value and number of scholarships each year are determined by the Trustees after having regard to all relevant factors including the applicants’ personal circumstances.

A full C.A.S.Hawker Scholarship normally covers all college fees and university HECS fees.

In selecting a scholar, the Trustees may give preference to students intending to enter the Australian political field or other such activity considered beneficial to the Australian community.

They also take into consideration such qualities and stipulations as they may deem appropriate to the wishes of Kathleen Lillias Needham as expressed in the Trust Deed. According to these wishes, applicants must:

- be of good character and conduct, well mannered and be fair and honourable in his or her dealings.
- have given some indications of citizenship, of loyalty and patriotism to Australia.
- have reasonable academic ability but need not be in the highest academic grade.

Applicants may go to the C.A.S. Hawker Scholarship Application Form on the website, print out a copy, complete the details and send it as directed. They may also write to or telephone the secretary to the Trustees and request that an Application Form be sent to them.

Indigenous Youth Leadership Program ("IYLP")

The IYLP gives Indigenous young people the opportunity to study at universities and benefit from practical leadership ex-periences, personal development and mentoring.

IYLP scholarships are open to all Indigenous students aged 16-24 years undertaking full time studies at a Diploma or Degree level at TAFE or University, anywhere in Australia.

Tertiary scholarship funding ($6,000) can be used towards enrolment and tuition fees, text books and other essential educational costs. With additional funding (up to $1,250) to support leadership development.

Selection will be based on an applicant’s:

- career goals;
- demonstrated leadership;
- ability to make a positive contribution to an issue that needs addressing;
- significant achievements; and
- community involvement.

Applicants are encouraged to submit their applications as soon as possible either by faxing it to 08 9259 5733, emailing it to clewis@madalah.com.au or posting it to MADALAH Limited, PO Box 285 Willetton, WA 6155.

The purpose of the scholarship is to try to improve the health of Australians by supporting an outstanding applicant from one of the non-medical allied health disciplines, or from an applicant who is working directly in applied clinical research. Projects in laboratory sciences will not be supported.

To be eligible for, applicants must:
- provide a specific research proposal, developed in consultation with the postgraduate supervisor at the institution where the award is tenable.
- be enrolled as full-time students. The "full-time" criterion means that the applicant should spend not more than 10% of time in clinical practice - unless the clinical practice is providing the subjects for the research project.
- be Australian citizens of at least five years standing at the time of application.

NB Ethics committee approval is a prior condition of award. The scholarship may not normally be held concurrently with any other award.

The scholarship provides emoluments to contribute substantially toward the cost of living, books and charges. The level of remuneration will be $27,500 per annum, free of income tax. Payments will normally be made to the host institution each quarter.

The award will be for up to two years and is subject to the scholar’s satisfactory progress. Each six months, the scholar’s institutional supervisor will be expected to submit a written report on the scholar’s progress to the Foundation.

The primary criterion is that of academic excellence, assessed on the basis of the candidate’s tertiary performance and publication record. Applicants should list the papers which they have authored and which have been published (or accepted for publication) in refereed journals. This should not include abstracts or papers in preparation.

The selection committee will also give preference to persons who are likely to make a contribution to the further development of the allied health sciences in Australia.

Application forms may be obtained from Scholarship Officers of universities or may be downloaded from the Foundation’s Web site at www.menziesfoundation.org.au. In co-operation with the Sir Robert Menzies Memorial Trust, a registered charity in England, the Sir Robert Menzies Memorial Foundation is offering to Australians a post-graduate scholarship in engineering for tenure at universities in the United Kingdom.

The scholarships are awarded in memory of the Right Honourable Sir Robert Menzies, KT AK CH QC, Prime Minister of Australia from 1939 to 1941 and from 1949 to 1966.

Candidates must be Australian citizens, have been resident in Australia for at least five of the last ten years, and be available for interview in Australia at the time of selection in mid-September 2010. At the time of application, candidates should have at least an Upper Second Class Honours Degree in Engineering normally from an Australian university.

The scale of emoluments at the present time is as follows:
- Tuition fees or a research grant equivalent, examination and other compulsory fees - subject to approval by the Trustees.
- A grant of £120 towards the typing and binding of a thesis.
- £11,500 (if enrolled at a university outside London) and £13,500 (if enrolled at a London university) per annum, payable in three instalments.
- A student concession fare or other approved air fare from Australia to So that Australia may benefit from the experience and knowledge gained, candidates will be asked to indicate the career they hope to follow on return to Australia. The Selection Committee will seek individuals who are likely to attain prominence in Australia and, in their subsequent careers, make a contribution to British/Australian relations and understanding.

The Selection Committee will take into account in the first place academic achievement, but also those qualities in candidates which Sir Robert Menzies held in high esteem. The qualities sought include:
- Academic excellence.
- Leadership, both proven and

Sir Robert Menzies Scholarship to Harvard

The Robert Gordon Menzies Scholarships to Harvard are Australia’s most prestigious national awards for postgraduate study in the United States. Inaugurated in 1967 by prominent Australian alumni of Harvard to honour the Australian statesman and former Prime Minister, the Menzies Scholarship grants at least one annual award to talented Australians who have gained admission to a Harvard graduate school.

To be considered for a Menzies Scholarship, you must be an Honours graduate (or equivalent) of an Australian university or other recognised Australian tertiary institution and:

- be an Australian citizen, or have permanent resident status, and normally reside in Australia;
- intend to return to Australia after completing your studies or to directly represent Australia overseas;
- have not previously undertaken a postgraduate degree course at a United States university; and
- you must not have accepted another major scholarship (such as a Knox, Fulbright or Monash). (in 2011, applicants must have completed a degree before 2011.)

Applicants will be selected based on the following criteria:

- qualities of intellect - as demonstrated through academic achievement and likely benefit from study at a Harvard graduate school;
- qualities of leadership - as demonstrated by prominence in your chosen field or by involvement in, for example, community affairs;
- breadth of vision - as evidenced by the way you look at your present or intended profession in relation to its contribution to Australia and the Australian

Winston Churchill Memorial Trust Fellowships

The Churchill Trust was established in 1965 to honour the memory of Sir Winston Churchill by awarding overseas research Fellowships known as "Churchill Fellowships".

To be eligible to apply for a Churchill Fellowship you must:
- be an Australian Citizen over the age of 18
- not be completing tertiary studies directly related to the topic of your proposed project
- have experience in and commitment to the field of your project
- have a worthy project that requires overseas investigation
- be willing to disseminate the results of your research to the broader Australian community; and
- not have been awarded a Churchill Fellowship in the past.

The Trust awards about 100 Fellowships at an average value of $25,000 each.

The Trust is also fortunate to be supported by sponsors who donate to the Trust for specific research projects.

Fellowships are awarded to Australians who, like Churchill, are innovative, filled with a spirit of determination and possess a strong desire to benefit their community.

The official 2012 Application Package and forms will be available for download on 1 October and applications for 2012 Churchill Fellowships will open on 1 November.
