Associate Professor Level B
Position Description

The duties and responsibilities of this position may include each of the itemised activities with specific expectations negotiated from time to time with the Dean.

INTRODUCTION
Associate Professors Level B are expected to make an outstanding contribution to all activities of the Faculty and the University and plays a significant role within their profession or discipline and has attained recognition at a national and international level. They are expected to play a major role and provide leadership in teaching, research, scholarship and academic administration. An Associate Professor Level B on appointment is equivalent to an experienced Senior Lecturer in comparable public universities.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES
Duties and responsibilities of an Associate Professor Level B include, but are not limited to:

TEACHING AND LEARNING
- Making a significant original and innovative contribution to the advancement of teaching and learning in their Faculty, modelling teamwork and flexibility to ensure the pedagogical and commercial success of the Faculty and University
- Contributing significantly to curriculum, resource, program and subject design, development, management and review as required to ensure that learning and teaching in the Faculty and across disciplines reflects best practice and a command of the field
- Demonstrating a command of educational best practice, continuously improving their own teaching and learning to a high level, including maintaining a comprehensive teaching portfolio, and contributing to the continuous development and improvement of learning and teaching across the university
- Initiating and contributing to scholarly activities that influence and enhance learning and teaching in the University
- Preparing high quality subject delivery and learning support materials using any web based platforms, electronic library information systems and other teaching and learning systems developed for use in the University
- Ensuring that the graduate attributes of the University are embedded in subjects or discipline areas for which they are responsible and that there is explicit relationship of learning and teaching to University objectives
Complying with all policies and procedures relating to teaching and learning, making every effort to contribute to the continuous improvement and effectiveness of administration of teaching and learning

Acting as a subject coordinator and/or area or discipline coordinator including: managing the area/discipline including providing feedback and contributing to performance management; supervising tutors; carrying out related planning and coordination responsibilities; organising the preparation and marking of assignments and all examinations; invigilating examinations; and submitting grades

Conducting lectures, tutorials, workshops, practical classes, demonstrations, field excursions, clinical sessions and other appropriate learning activities as required

Ensuring that students are adequately informed of the requirements and conduct of learning activities

Encouraging regular and effective consultation with students

Providing flexible, consistent and timely approaches to assessment and feedback that foster independent learning, incorporate relevant developments, and reflect best practice

Obtaining feedback from students, peers and employers on individual teaching, the subjects and programs for which they are responsible, and the implementation and pedagogy

Contributing significantly to internal and external reviews and accreditation of subjects and programs for which they are responsible

Providing respect and support for the development of students as individuals and thereby contributing to creating the unique Bond experience for students in their learning

Providing approaches to learning that influence, motivate and inspire students to learn

RESEARCH AND SCHOLARSHIP

Making an original and innovative contribution to the advancement of scholarship and research

Developing productive areas of personal research and scholarship, and as a result, generating high level research outcomes

Developing a significant record of publication in top ranked and other research and scholarly journals and other forms of publication

Developing recognition of a national reputation in areas of research and scholarship

Initiating and developing major research activities including, where appropriate, leadership of a research team and/or project

Contributing to leadership of research projects and research teams (where appropriate)

Developing a record of success in applications for research funding, whether individually or as part of a team

Supervising the program of study for honours students and postgraduate students undertaking research projects and contributing to development of an environment conducive to a strong research ethos

Participating in development opportunities to improve research and supervision skills

Contributing to developing, mentoring and providing feedback to junior researchers

Contributing significantly in the Faculty and University in the policy development, management and review of research
SERVICE, ADMINISTRATION AND PROFESSIONAL CONTRIBUTIONS

- Within the Faculty and/or University, making a significant contribution to two or more of and taking a leadership role in at least one of:
  - A significant aspect of promotion, marketing, and recruitment activities
  - Extra-curricular educational activities that impact on employers and/or the wider community
  - A significant aspect of alumni and/or development activities
  - Management and administration of a major aspect of the Faculty’s teaching, research or student service activities
  - A significant Centre
  - Management and administration of a significant area (e.g., teaching and learning, student support and administration, postgraduate programs, quality assurance) across the Faculty and/or University

- Making a contribution to the profession and/or discipline including:
  - Contributing to relevant professional societies and to the community and
  - Developing and participating in short courses, seminars and conferences programs as appropriate

- Making an outstanding contribution to the governance and collegiate life internally and externally to the University

- Adhering to University and Faculty Policies and Procedures and contributing to review of existing policies and procedures and development of new policies and procedures

- Contributing significantly to department and/or faculty meetings, and serving on committees as required

- Contributing to the financial viability and success of the Faculty and University

OTHER DUTIES AS DIRECTED

The staff member may seek and/or the Dean may allocate additional duties within a staff member’s skill, competence and training.

TEACHING LOAD

The teaching load for this position is the load established in accordance with Faculty Policies, except as otherwise agreed with the Dean. The workload can be increased if research and scholarship output is not considered to be of an appropriate standard for an Associate Professor B.

RELEVANT EDUCATIONAL QUALIFICATIONS

An Associate Professor Level B must have a doctoral qualification or the equivalent in the relevant discipline.

UNDERSTANDING OF QUALITY ASSURANCE

Staff should demonstrate an understanding of the principles of quality assurance and continuous improvement as they apply at Bond University.

Staff are expected to demonstrate an ongoing commitment to the Bond University Strategic Plan, university policy and to our quality assurance processes.

UNDERSTANDING OF CULTURAL SENSITIVITY

Staff will come into contact with staff and students from a variety of cultural backgrounds. It is expected that mutual respect, cultural awareness and cultural sensitivity will form the basis of for a professional working relationship.
Staff are encouraged to attend a cultural sensitivity workshop to further enhance and develop cultural awareness and cultural sensitivity skills.

Position held by: ________________________________

Signed: ________________________________

Date: ________________________________