We are seeking to appoint an Assistant Professor in Organisational Behaviour, equivalent to Level B or Level C.

Applicants are required to demonstrate:
- PhD in management, organisational psychology, or a related field.
- Excellent research training and skills.
- Established or emerging publication record in any of the areas mentioned below.
- Evidence of excellence in teaching at both undergraduate and master’s level in one or more specialised areas from organisational behaviour, change management, leadership and managerial skill development, negotiation, cross-cultural management, human resource management.
- Commitment to delivering the highest quality teaching and learning experience for undergraduate and masters students, and willingness to innovate in teaching methods.
- Willingness to engage in departmental, faculty, and university service as well as curriculum development.
- High quality interpersonal and communication skills, and demonstrated commitment to teamwork and collegiality.
- Willingness to engage with the broader community, such as industry, professional associations, and/or schools.

The following attributes are highly regarded:
- Relevant industry experience or connections.
- Knowledge of blended learning and on-line delivery pedagogical tools and strategies.
- Proven ability to teach at postgraduate and executive levels.