

DOCTOR OF PHYSIOTHERAPY CLINICAL PLACEMENT AGREEMENT

All students studying in the Doctor of Physiotherapy program (Faculty of Health Sciences and Medicine) at Bond University are required to read and sign the DPhty Clinical Placement Agreement:

I, the student, will:

- Recognise and accept responsibility for my professional growth and development;
- Undertake to be familiar with the expectations of each unit before commencing the respective clinical placement.
- Participate fully in the Clinical Placement learning experience;
- Set myself realistic goals and challenges to enable self-directed learning
- Make appropriate decisions based on reflection about my practice;
- Act in a professional manner in accordance with the Australian Physiotherapy Association Code of Conduct and the requirements of the Bond University Code of Conduct policy;
- Observe confidentiality requirements at all times;
- Be sensitive to and responsive to the unique features of each clinical learning environment;
- Recognise, value and respect diversity during Clinical Placements;
- Be familiar with and act in accordance with legal and industrial requirements that relate to my field experience;
- Fulfil the University's expectations of the Clinical Placement regarding conduct and application to the learning process
- Follow any lawful direction given to me by persons in authority during the Clinical Placement;
- Be receptive to constructive feedback from clinical educators and others; and
- Initiate proactive steps to familiarise myself with the requirements of my undertaken Clinical Placement and ensure compliance with immunisation, security, induction processes and any other requirements of the facility.

I, the student, understand the requirements of clinical practice and agree to the terms outlined. I understand that a breach of the expected standard of ethical and professional conduct may result in the cessation of my Clinical Placement, the potential for disciplinary action and reporting to AHPRA, and the potential for exclusion from the Bond University Doctor of Physiotherapy Program.
