

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS (FAQs)

2. What is the significance of a students' Learning Profile?

Prior to commencement of the clinical placement, each Bond University physiotherapy student will complete a 'Learning Profile' and email their educator a copy for their records. This learning profile provides an opportunity for you to get to know your student as a learner, including their preferred learning style and preferred options for receiving feedback.

Clinical Placement Learning Profile
Name:	Date:
Placement Type:	Phone:
Mailing Address:	Email:
Emergency Contact:	Relationship:
Address:	Phone:

Academic Interests (previous degree, including any possible research interests if you have developed some):

Preferred Learning Style: (e.g. auditory, tactile / kinaesthetic, visual, combined):

Preferred Options for Feedback (e.g. immediately after the patient assessment / intervention, end of day, written, verbal etc.)

Previous clinical (or other) experience's that may influence your learning patterns (both positive and negative). Sharing this information may help your educator to plan in a way that will prevent negative learning situation from happening and promote more positive learning opportunities for you:

Anything else you would like your educator to know that will assist them to best meet your learning and personal needs during your placement: