

The background of the slide is a close-up photograph of several green leaves, likely from a plant like a succulent or a similar leafy vegetable. The leaves are layered, with some in the foreground being sharper and others in the background being blurred. The colors range from a vibrant lime green to a deeper forest green. The lighting is soft and natural, highlighting the texture of the leaf surfaces.

Purpose:

The purpose of this case study is to generate discussion about research in terms of the principles of the National Statement.

Assumptions:

1. Assume that all of the governance criteria are met. That is, the research team have official approvals from relevant partner institutions, appropriate licensing and blue cards, etc.
2. All of the associated paperwork is included and are in order. The participant information is clear and appropriate.

Consider the following application for ethics approval.

Ask yourself and your group:

In what way does this project reflect the values of the National Statement?

Research Merit and Integrity

Respect

Justice

Beneficence

What feedback would your group provide to the research team?

How would you relate that back to the National Statement?
