Bond University
Gold Coast Qld 4226

The 2017 Interdisciplinary Colloquium on Sport is proudly hosted by:

Centre for Commercial Law, Faculty of Law, Faculty of Health Sciences & Medicine and Faculty of Society & Design.

The Centre for Commercial Law Overview

The Centre for Commercial Law is a not-for-profit university research centre established in 1989 as the Taxation and Corporate Research Centre. The Centre provides a vehicle for the pursuit of transnational research, teaching, conferences and colloquia. The Centre publishes scholarly books and four law journals.

Our Mission

The key objectives of the Centre are to:

- Provide a Centre of excellence for research, teaching, seminars, conferences, colloquia and publications in the area of commercial law;
- Encourage and organise interaction with Australian and overseas scholars and legal and business practitioners and related professional groups; and
- Initiate and develop transnational and global links for the various programs of the Centre; and aspire to be at the forefront of electronic publishing and blended educational presentation techniques.

The Centre for Commercial Law encourages relevant high quality research, publication and education on a broad range of topics that concern the relationship of law to domestic and international commercial and business activity.
