GENERAL INFORMATION

Students must choose Postgraduate Law Electives from the Faculty of Law's offerings

No General Electives are offered in this program.

Eligible students may choose to receive a maximum of one optional Permissible Award, with the relevant specialisation noted on their Testamur.

Students are able to opt out of a specialisation but must take all Law Electives from the postgraduate offerings in the Faculty of Law.

PROGRAM INFORMATION

Students may wish to undertake a specialisation within their degree, by completing four Postgraduate Law Electives (40 credit points) within an approved study area. These include:

- Canadian Law and Practice
- Corporate and Commercial Law and Practice
- Dispute Resolution
- International Business and Finance Law
- Family Dispute Resolution
- International Commercial Law and Dispute Resolution

SUBJECT INFORMATION

In their first semester, it is recommended that students:

- without a solid background in legal research, reasoning or writing enrol in LAWS75-102 Advanced Legal Reasoning, Research and Writing
- from a civil law background enrol in LAWS77-101 Common Law and Legal Skills

Assumed knowledge is the minimum level of knowledge of a subject area that students are assumed to have acquired through previous study. It is the responsibility of students to ensure they meet the assumed knowledge expectations of a specified subject. Students who do not possess this prior knowledge are strongly recommended against enrolling and do so at their own risk. No concessions will be made for students' lack of prior knowledge.
