

Bond University welcomes you to

Teacher Librarians, School Library Staff & English Teachers Professional Development Day

Thursday, 27 February 2020

Princeton Room

(Building 6, Level 3, Room 04)

8.30am to 3.30pm

Schedule

Time	Activity
8.15am	Registration
8.45am	Campus Tour Sue Hutley, General Manager, Library Customer Services & Ian Edwards, Manager, Law Library Including a tour of: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Balnaves Foundation Multimedia Learning Centre - John & Alison Kearney Law Library - John & Alison Kearney Main Library - Bond Business School, Business Commons
9.25am	Official Welcome Sarah Fredline, University Librarian
9.30am	Session 1 Key Research Skills for English Sources of Evidence & Literature Review Daniel Walker, Faculty Librarian 'Boolean Searching, Shakespeare Style' Tiffany Mitchell, Faculty Librarian Open Access Resources
10.30am	Morning tea
11.00am	Session 2 Digital Literacy Digital Literacy Skills & Students Jessie Donaghey, Digital Services Librarian Bond Library's 11 ½ Things program
12.30pm	Lunch
1.15pm	Session 3 Creative Approaches to Textual Analysis Caroline Graham, Senior Teaching Fellow, Faculty of Society & Design Caroline is a Teaching Fellow of the Faculty of Society & Design. Her research interests include creative writing pedagogy and practice and the intersection between history, memory, empathy and narrative. Caroline is the co-writer of a Walkley Award-winning podcast and works with news media outlets regularly. Dr Jane Hunt, Assistant Professor, Faculty of Society & Design Jane is an Assistant Professor of Australian Studies in the Faculty of Society & Design. She teaches Australian literature and popular culture subjects.
3.30pm	Closing Address

Please Note

There will be a meeting of the ALIA Gold Coast Librarians Group in 6_2_14 from 4.00pm - 5.00pm Teacher Librarians & School Library Staff are welcome to attend