ALUMNI LOYALTY DISCOUNT POLICY

1. OVERVIEW AND APPLICABILITY
This Policy details the circumstances under which the Alumni Loyalty Discount operates. The Alumni Loyalty program applies to Bond University graduates and their eligible direct family members. The alumnum must have completed an eligible previous full-degree program.

2. THE POLICY

2.1. The Alumni Loyalty Discount applies to students of Bond University who have completed an eligible previous full-degree program and those past students’ eligible direct family members.

2.2. The maximum discount that can be received by any student through combined Alumni and Family Loyalty Discount is $20,000.

2.3. Students who qualify as eligible for the Alumni Loyalty discount will receive a 10% discount of fees per semester for their enrolment in an eligible subsequent full-degree program up to the value of the maximum discount. Where the Alumni Loyalty Discount is for program with fees in excess of $200,000, the discount will be applied in equal amounts across the life of the program.

2.4. Students who qualify as eligible for the Alumni Loyalty discount with an eligible previous full degree program of Bachelor of Laws or Juris Doctor, will receive a 10% discount of fees per semester for their enrolment in a Graduate Diploma in Legal Practice or Graduate Diploma in Legal Practice (Online) and are exempt from clause 2.6(ii) below.

2.5. Students are not eligible to receive Alumni and Family Loyalty Discounts concurrently.

2.6. The Alumni Loyalty Discount will only apply where the alumnus or their eligible direct family member:

(i) meets the requirements for entry into their desired program; and

(ii) has not been in receipt of a scholarship or any other financial aid from Bond University valued at more than 10% of tuition fees for an eligible previous full-degree program.
2.7. The Executive Dean of the Faculty, in consultation with the Vice-Chancellor, may exercise discretion to make decisions in relation to the Alumni Loyalty discount outside the terms of this Policy in exceptional circumstances.

3. FUNDING SOURCE
The discount will be borne by the Faculty budget in which the student is enrolled. In the case of double degrees, the cost will be shared between the Faculties in proportion based on the sum of the credit point load of the respective Faculty’s subjects.

4. APPLICATION PROCESS
The Alumni Loyalty Discount will be applied to an applicant’s record at the time of offer when their eligibility has been recognised by the assessing Admissions Officer.

Where the Alumni Loyalty Discount has not been applied at the time of offer, the alumnus must lodge an application with the General Manager, Admissions before the end of Week 4 of the relevant starting semester.

Where the discount relates to the eligible direct family member of the alumnus, the direct family member must lodge an application with the General Manager, Admissions before the end of Week 4 of the relevant starting semester. Applicants will need to provide evidence (eg birth certificates, marriage certificate) of the direct family relationship.

Due to Government regulations, the discount cannot be applied retrospectively.

5. DEFINITIONS

Eligible previous full-degree program
A combination of subjects which, according to degree rules, leads to an academic award at an AQF level of 7 or above not including Graduate Certificates and Graduate Diplomas. The alumnus must also have successfully completed at least 120 credit points at Bond University or a Higher Degree Research program.

Eligible subsequent full-degree program
A combination of subjects which, according to degree rules, leads to an academic award of the University at an AQF level of 7 or above.

Eligible Direct Family Members
For the purposes of this Policy means parent, partner or de facto (see Australian Government definition and examples of evidence which may be required), children (see Australian Government definition), siblings, and grandchildren.

6. RELATED PROCEDURES

7. RELATED GUIDELINES AND FORMS

Alumni and Family Loyalty Discount Application