

Australian Digital Theses Program

Thesis Deposit Form

1. Copyright statement

I hereby grant to the Bond University or its agents the right to archive and to make available my thesis or dissertation in whole or in part in the University libraries in all forms of media, now or hereafter known.

In regard to the digital version of the thesis I have clearly separated and identified all the parts that have been previously published. Where copyright has been transferred to a publisher I have gained permission/s to leave the publications in the digital version when it is placed online in the University's digital repository, e-publications@bond.

I have attained all copyright permissions required for use of third party material and retain all proprietary rights, such as patent rights. I also retain the right to use in future works (such as articles or books) all or part of this thesis or dissertation.

I have provided a copy of all copyright permission letters with the thesis.

2. Authenticity statement

I certify that this is a direct electronic equivalent of the copy of my thesis approved by Bond University for the award of the degree. No emendation of content has occurred, and if there are any minor variations in formatting, they are a result of the conversion to Adobe Acrobat format.

3. Contact Details

Full name

Address

Phone number

Email

Are you an international student visa holder?

Yes –you must advise the International Student Compliance Officer as soon as this is received no

Signature

Date

4. Graduation details

Date degree awarded

Date of graduation

Faculty use only

Research Development Manager's Name:

Student One updated

Date

Thesis instructions- graduation

Before you may be awarded your degree, you are required to provide three copies of your thesis bound in permanent form along with a digital file in PDF format. Further information on binding is set out below.

- All copyright permission letters that cover digital and hardcopy reproduction
- One bound copy plus digital file goes to the Bond University Library
- one copy to your Supervisor and
- another to the Faculty.

Please provide thesis copies to the Research Administrator/Coordinator in the Faculty at your earliest convenience.

Please also provide your Post Nominals for your testamur as soon as possible.

Under special circumstances, University Regulations provide that for a period of 24 months after the thesis is lodged, it will not be made available for consultation or copying without the written consent of the author. Accordingly, please complete and return the enclosed Candidate's Instructions Regarding Availability of Thesis form and Thesis Copyright statement.

Your award may be conferred at the following Graduation Ceremony however your Faculty/ Research Administrator will require the permanent bound and electronic copy of your thesis at least two weeks prior to the Graduation Ceremony, along with accompanying forms completed and signed.

If you have not yet done so, please also complete an Application to Graduate form as soon as possible.

Bond has a very strong global network of Alumni which may provide beneficial opportunities for your career. Refer to the Bond Alumni website at:

<https://alumni.bond.edu.au>

Permanent bound thesis x 3

Prior to the award of the degree, all the thesis copies are to be bound in a permanent form. A permanent binding shall consist of a good quality, durable hard bound cover. The candidate's surname, initials and a short title shall be printed on the spine. A date should not be added. Lettering on the spine should be along the spine from top to bottom.

The thesis printing may be double-sided. Good quality paper of adequate thickness (80gsm) must be used. An electronic copy is also required on a digital file. The document format standard is PDF and should be created using the conventions outlined under the heading How to create and submit an electronic copy of a thesis to the Library on the Submitting a Thesis webpage, available via the Library website (<http://bond.libguides.com/writing-submitting-a-thesis>).

Order of Contents

The thesis must be preceded by a title page. This should normally be followed by a certification of sources, the summary, the table of contents, a list of all illustrations and diagrams, the main text, the appendices and the bibliography.