1. CONTEXT

Bond University recognises that the protection of Freedom of Speech and Academic Freedom within the academy has been and will be of major benefit to human society and to the development of knowledge as a whole.

Bond University acknowledges that universities have a special role as institutions dedicated to free, open and critical expression across the full scope of human knowledge and endeavour. Central to this role is the freedom of Staff and students to teach, research, debate and learn independent of external circumstance and pressure.

Bond University is committed to supporting critical and free inquiry, and informed intellectual discourse and public debate on our campuses and amongst our Staff, students and visitors.

2. THE POLICY

2.1. Right to Freedom of Speech and Academic Freedom

Section 2.1 is subject to the provisions of Section 2.2 of the Policy.

A core value of Bond University is to preserve, defend and promote the principles of Freedom of Speech and Academic Freedom in the conduct of its affairs, so that all Staff, students and visitors at the University are free to engage in critical inquiry, scholarly and scientific endeavour, and public discourse without fear or favour.

Accordingly, the University supports the right of all Staff, students and visitors at the University to search for truth and to hold and express diverse opinions. It recognises that scholarly and scientific debate should be robust and uninhibited. It recognises also that members of the Bond community are entitled to express their ideas and opinions.

Every member of the Staff and every student enjoys Freedom Of Speech and Academic Freedom subject only to prohibitions, restrictions or conditions imposed by:

- law;
- reasonable and proportionate regulation necessary to the discharge of the University's teaching and research activities;
- the right and freedom of others to express themselves and to hear and receive information and opinions;
- reasonable and proportionate regulation necessary to discharge the University's Duty to Foster the Wellbeing of Staff and Students;

- reasonable and proportionate regulation to enable the University to give effect to its legal duties; and
- the University by way of its reasonable requirements as to the courses to be delivered and the content and means of their delivery.

2.2. Responsibilities

The right to Freedom of Speech and Academic Freedom carries the following responsibilities.

Freedom of Speech and Academic Freedom must:

- be conducted reasonably, professionally and in good faith;
- be conducted in accordance with principles of academic and research ethics;
- include transparent reasoning and references so that those who wish to respond have a basis to do so; and
- make clear affiliations, sources, funding, and potential conflicts of interest where applicable.

In commenting publicly, Staff of Bond University must act according to the rights and responsibilities set out within this Policy and the University's Media Policy, Social Media Policy, and other relevant policies and regulations. Where Staff are commenting on topics outside their area of professional expertise, they should not link their comments to their association with the University. Staff holding multiple roles should make clear which role they are representing when making a statement.

2.3. Student Bodies

The Right to Freedom of Speech and Academic Freedom and the Responsibilities set out within this Policy extend to student representative bodies within the University, including the Bond University Student Association and its affiliated clubs and societies.
