

Selection Criteria
Assistant Professor, Level A- IEBH
Associate Professor Level B - IEBH
Commissioned Research Lead

Essential Criteria

- A PhD qualification in a relevant field
- Experience in project management of team-based research projects, particularly evidence synthesis.
- Experience in systematic reviews, and other methods of evidence synthesis
- High level leadership, interpersonal, communication and collaboration skills along with the capacity to liaise and build effective working relationships at all levels with university staff and industry/health partners.
- A strong track record in a range of research as evidenced by peer-reviewed publications and research supervision including successful Honours, postgraduate research and/or HDR completions.
- Familiarity with current and future priorities in healthcare services and system development and contemporary approaches to implementation of research evidence into practice and policy

Desirable Criteria:

- Demonstrated ability to mentor, support and supervise staff in research.
- A track record of success in application for research funding