

BUSA Elections 2024-25

Candidate List – Executive Committee

Nominee Details in alphabetical order per position

FOR PRESIDENT

Elijah Sargent

Hi Bondies! I'm Elijah Sargent, and after serving for a year as your Vice President of Recreation, I have nominated to continue serving the student community as President of the Bond University Student Association. My time spent as Vice President of Recreation and as Co-Convenor of Bondstock 2024 has extended my passion for leadership and deepened my understanding of student needs and interests. With your trust, I hope to build on BUSA's relationship with the students to ensure every voice is heard. Thank you for your continued support – let's work together to create a vibrant and inclusive student community.

Timothy Palmer

Hi Bondies, my name is Timothy Palmer and I am nominating for the position of President of BUSA for the 2024/25 committee. I am currently studying a Bachelor of Laws/Commerce for the past two years and have loved the community it has provided. I have been greatly involved over those years and want to continue to push Bond forward in what it provides to you. I would love to see BUSA empower the other clubs that make Bond such a great community and I think my experiences will be a great way to revitalise BUSA to achieve this

FOR TREASURER

Keerat Sidhu

Hey Bondies! As your Treasurer, I'm dedicated to making every dollar work hard to elevate your campus experience!

With a proven track record in budgeting and financial management, I'll ensure that your favorite clubs, events, and initiatives receive the funding they deserve. By collaborating with student leaders and university staff, I'll keep everything running smoothly so you can enjoy all the incredible opportunities Bond offers.

Let's build a vibrant, inclusive community that highlights what makes Bond University truly special.

Michael Ting

Hi Bondies!

My name is Michael and I am running for the position of Treasurer of Busa for the 24/25 committee. I am currently going into my sixth semester studying law and Commerce. Throughout my studies I have loved the culture here at Bond and being a part of the community, being blessed with many great experiences. Upon being a part of a number of student committees in the past couple years, I would love to continue to push for more opportunities for all students at the University and to give back to the community.

FOR SECRETARY

Jett-Paris Bedelis

Hey everyone! My name is Jett and I am excited about the possibility to serve each and every one of you as secretary of BUSA. With a passion toward fostering an inclusive and cohesive environment, I aim to ensure that all students feel empowered to have a voice within the Bond University community. Currently working in a managerial role with a background in competitive sports and captancy during highschool, I believe I have what it takes to make BUSA great again!

Jordan Shephard

Hi Bondies! I'm Jordi, a penultimate year studying Law/Business. I am the current President of the Business Students' Association (BSA), and organising events like Palaver has enhanced my passion for student life at Bond.

Outside of the office, I love cheerleading - as Vice President of the Bond Cheer Club, I understand the importance of good teamwork! As your Secretary, I would bring energy, dedication, and a love for student involvement to the role.

Go Bullsharks!

FOR VICE PRESIDENT RECREATION

FOR VICE PRESIDENT EDUCATION

Hoda Asgarian

As a PhD student with nearly two years of student leadership experience, I am dedicated to enhancing the academic journey for all students. Serving as the Research Management Group (RMG) Representative, student leader, and educator, I have fostered collaboration among peers and HDR students to support learning and organize initiatives centered on international student interests in the Law faculty. As Vice President of Education, I aim to promote inclusive learning, advocate for academic resources, and ensure student voices are heard. My passion lies in empowering students to achieve academic and personal success

Annie Bui

As a candidate for Vice President of Education, I aim to transform student learning experiences by advocating for student needs. With an understanding of academic policy, I will make sure that student voices shape curriculum and policy decisions. My experience in collaborative leadership will improve student representation at the Academic Senate and contribute to achieving goals. I am dedicated to fostering inclusive and innovative initiatives for domestic, international and postgraduate students. My administrative and communication skills will be instrumental for stakeholders at all levels. I am committed to upholding high curriculum standards and creating meaningful change, supporting student interests with integrity.

Indigo Cheetham

Hi! I'm Indigo, running for Vice President (Education).

I am passionate about ensuring every student is heard and supported. As Academic Affairs Director on my faculty's student association, I made practical change and represented students in various capacities. From my experience, I truly understand this role and the wonderful people surrounding it.

This role is about us - the students. I hear you asking for fairer marking criteria across faculties, more consistency and access to support, and a wider range of academic co-curriculars. I care deeply about your experience and look forward to advocating for you everywhere I can.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT SPORT

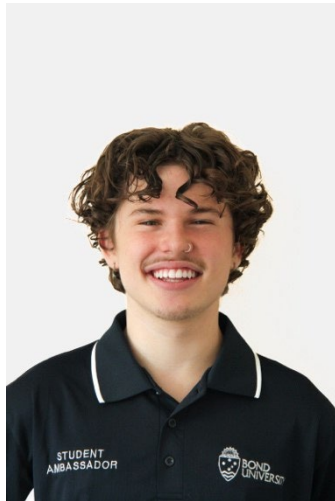

Nicholas Spegel

As President of the Bond Basketball Club, Men’s Captain of Bond UniSports, and a staff member at the Bond University Sports Centre, I am deeply involved in our sporting community. I’ve developed strong leadership and communication skills with Bond Sport while helping to organise and promote sports on campus. My studies in Law and Business allow me to manage this role’s responsibilities. I’m passionate about creating more sporting opportunities and ensuring everyone, from beginners to athletes, feels included and encouraged to participate. As Vice-President of Sport, I’ll work to make the sporting community more vibrant and accessible for all Bondies.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT COMMUNICATION

Noah Tye

Hello Bondies!

I’m Noah Tye, and I’m thrilled to be your candidate for VP Communications for the 2024/25 Executive Committee of the Bond University Student Association. I’m studying Communications, serving as a student ambassador, and have worked with the marketing team on Bond University’s TikTok.

I value communication deeply. I’ve built a large TikTok following and collaborated with brands like City Beach Australia so I understand engagement.

I would be honoured to apply the knowledge I’ve gained to foster connection and keep you informed about all the fantastic events and opportunities Bond offers. I aim to create eye-catching, informative, and accessible content for BUSA’s social media platforms. As VP of Communications, I aim to nurture a supportive environment and strengthen the Association and community at bond.

Thank you in advance for your trust and support. I look forward to working with you all soon!
