

LAW STUDENT COMMITMENT

As a law student at Bond University, and for the duration of my time at Bond University, I affirm the following:

I will display the highest ethical and moral standards, befitting a legal practitioner.

I will always act with honesty and integrity.

I will demonstrate courtesy and respect towards my fellow students, the University's academic and professional staff, and all others.

I will exhibit the professional standards of behaviour expected of Bond law students.

I will diligently acquire a deep knowledge of the law and legal processes and develop my legal skills so as to uphold the rule of law, serve my clients and contribute to the public good.

I make this commitment freely, solemnly, and upon my honour.
