

Selection Criteria Associate Professor in Law

Teaching + Research appointment

1. A doctoral qualification in a relevant discipline.
2. A commitment to excellence and innovation in teaching and learning as evidenced by a well-articulated philosophy of teaching, positive student feedback, and peer recognition of teaching in the form of, for example, teaching awards and citations.
3. Leadership in curriculum, resource, program and subject design including technology-enabled approaches to subject delivery.
4. A national or international research profile with expertise in legal education and the scholarship of learning and teaching, particularly online delivery.
5. An extensive record of presentation of research at national and international conferences, publications in quality scholarly journals, participation in academic and public discourse, and other forms of research dissemination.
6. A record of success in applications for research funding and supervision of postgraduate research.
7. Significant and sustained contributions to marketing, recruitment, alumni relations or other service activities within the Faculty and University, including leadership roles on committees, in research centres or in working groups.
8. Excellent leadership, interpersonal, communication and collaboration skills, including an ability to interact effectively with colleagues, students and stakeholders.