

Selection Criteria - Casual Teaching Fellow – Biomedical Science

Essential

- A completed Bachelor degree with Honours level qualification in a relevant discipline
- Experience in teaching Biomedical Science disciplines to students in a higher education environment
- Excellent interpersonal, communication and collaboration skills, including an ability to engage effectively with students, stakeholders and colleagues within an interdisciplinary environment

Desirable

- A postgraduate qualification in a relevant field