

SELECTION CRITERIA
Assistant Professor of Project Management
Faculty of Society & Design

Selection Criteria:

- A PhD qualification in a relevant field;
- Evidence of experience in contemporary teaching methods such as self-directed learning, small group learning, web-based learning and technology enhanced learning;
- Demonstrated track record of producing high-quality, independent, and collaborative research, with a clear program of research in project management or related interdisciplinary fields;
- Enthusiasm and a high level of communication skills both written and verbal;
- Cultural awareness and sensitivity in dealing with staff and students from diverse backgrounds.
- Appointment at the Assistant Professor A level will require evidence of significant, impactful teaching experience, an established national/international research contribution, and/or significant industry experience and professional impact at a senior level.

Desirable Criteria

- Relevant experience in teaching international students at both undergraduate and postgraduate coursework level;
- Experience in teaching and communicating online content;
- Holding professional certifications from PMI, AIPM, or other relevant professional organisations.