Rohan Titus

Bachelor of Laws

Assistant Director, Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade - Kabul, Afghanistan

Rohan's journey

1994 Graduated from Bond University with a Bachelor of Laws.

1995 Graduate recruit to the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade (DFAT), starting on the West Europe desk.

1996 DFAT Secretary's Citation (French Nuclear Testing).

1997 Australian Service Medal (Bougainville clasp).

DFAT Secretary's Citation (New Horizons Team).

Graduated from Monash University with a Master of Arts (Foreign Affairs and Trade).

1998 DFAT Secretary's Citation (Sandline Crisis and Bougainville Peace Team).

2001 Defence Secretary's Commendation for service in Brunei.

2003 DFAT Secretary's Citation (Iraq Task Force).

Drafted key response to the Bali bombings.

2013 Civilian Operational Service Media (ICAT clasp).

NATO Non-Article 5 Medal.

US Navy and Marine Corps Achievement Medal.

2016 Played critical role in release of Australian aid worker kidnapped in Afghanistan.

2018 First Secretary for the Australian Embassy in Afghanistan.

Assistant Director, Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade.

Awarded Bond University's highest honour – the Robert Stable Medal – for exceptional professional and voluntary achievements.

BONDALUMNI